SUMMARY

For as long as I can remember, I've loved creating things, whether it be monstrous lego castles or hand knit hats. The urge to build clean and helpful things ultimately led me to programming. I'm passionate about working on an agile focused team and lending my creativity to develop new projects.

SKILLS

LANGUAGES	Ruby, Ruby on Rails, Javascript, SQL, HTML, CSS, JQuery, Ajax, Sinatra
TESTING	Rspec, Capybara, Jasmine
METHODOLOGIES	Git Workflow, OOP, Agile, TDD

PROJECTS

PairBnb

PairBnB is a social platform for programmers who are looking to network with, teach, learn from and host like-minded individuals (think Couchsurfing + AirBnB + Programming). Users can sign up, find other programmers in cities around the country, message each other, and request to pair-program on projects of their choice. In exchange for technical assistance, hosts can offer places to stay for users coming from out of town.

DBC Reddit

DBC Reddit is a forum designed to be focused on life and learning at Dev Bootcamp. In addition to posting topics and comments, users are able to upvote and downvote on posts as well as create and moderate sub-forums.
